

Association Visitor

"I am extremely honoured to be a volunteer for the MND Association. The most rewarding thing is knowing that I have helped people to access the services, equipment and support they need." Jo-Ann, Volunteer

What's involved?

- Offer emotional support and provide information to people affected by MND
- Help people affected by MND make informed choices and access appropriate services / support
- Explain to people affected by MND how the MND Association can support them
- Record information following the MND Association guidelines and local protocols
- Develop and maintain relationships with our local branch or group
- Attend support and supervision meetings as well as development events

This role will suit me if I:

- Have good listening skills and am a good communicator
- Am able to develop and maintain supportive relationships with people affected by MND
- Am non-judgmental and respectful of diverse lifestyles
- Am prepared to increase my understanding of MND and its impact on families
- Understand the need for confidentiality and the importance of data protection
- Am able to assess when extra support is needed

What's in it for me?

- Become part of a friendly and dedicated team
- Make a positive impact to the lives of people affected by MND
- Get access to a range of workshops and events

What sort of training/induction will I receive before starting?

You'll be inducted into the role and informed about the Association. As part of this, you will receive e-learning, face-to-face training and mentoring. The training programme will also include experiential and reflective learning.
